Los Angeles Herald

THE DAILY and WEEKLY HERALD has more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

SATURDAY..... DEC. 11, 1875.

THE NEW YEAR'S HERALD.

The New Year's HERALD will be the most complete statistical and generally descriptive paper on Los Angeles county and Southern California, ever issued. It will contain, with double sheet supplement, seventy-two columns, forty-eight of which at least will be interesting reading matter. A gentleman is now canvassing the county for the purpose of writing up a full and reliable description and others are at work preparing statistics. Business men will do well to have their special advertisements for this number in early. The paper will be issued promptly on January 1st, 1876.

IN PREPARATION.

Following the issue of our mammoth New Year's number of the Daily HERALD we propose to publish another edition of the HERALD Pamphlet of ten thousand copies. This Pamphlet will be filled with new and original matter, illustrating the growth, business, advantages and general status of Los Angeles city and county. It will be the most complete and reliable publication of the kind ever issued. The unprecedented popularity of the previous HERALD Pamphlets has determined the manager to spare no pains or expense to maintain the excellent reputation of this publication. It will be filled with reliable statistics and articles on farming, fruit raising, grape culture, wine making, etc., contributed by prominent citizens of the county. In addition to this, a gentleman of ability and experience is canvassing the county for the purpose of fully writing up every portion of it. Our merchants will find that an excellent advertising medium and will do well to engage space early, as only a limited number of advertisements will be inserted. When issued, the pamphlet will be sold at the uniform price of 15cts per copy.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The gambling houses of Cincinnati have been closed and are to be kept closed.

The steamer Los Angeles has arrived at Victoria with both engines disabled, having been under sail for eight days.

The District Courts of Utah are again at work trying polygamy cases.

A railroad collision has occurred near Titusville, Pa. No particulars.

The body of Judas Perin has been found in San Francisco Bay.

The Court of Inquiry in the Babcock case awaits the action of the Civil Court.

W. E. Delaney was hung at Hempstead, N.Y., yesterday.

EDWARD W. MARTIN has been appointed Governor IRWIN's private secretary.

SENATOR SARGENT has introduced a bill into the Senate, fixing the time for holding Circuit Courts in the districts in California, Oregon and Nevada. Senator INGALLS, of Kansas, has introduced a bill amending the acts for the construction of Railroads and Telegraphs from the Missouri river to the Pacific ocean.

WHAT better could be expected of JOYCE, the whiskey fraud, he having deserted his poor old mother and left her to starve in Chicago, while he was rolling in his ill-gotten wealth. The poor old woman is now ready to give him what little money she has saved if it will be of any service to him. Gen BARCOCK's bosom friend was a dutiful son and a model officer!

ATTORNEY GENERAL PIERREPONT's despatch dismissing Ex-Senator HENDERSON, as Government Counsel in the St. Louis whiskey cases, has the right ring. It reminds the reader of the better days of the Republic when he says, "Secure in his place the aid of the most able and efficient counsel you can find, without regard to his politics."

OUR San Francisco friends are becoming quite enthusiastic over certain Narrow Gauge Railroad projects, and no doubt these cheap roads will become more general in all our mountainous regions. Besides the diminished cost of construction, the saving in the price of rolling stock and reduction in running expenses will always be a great inducement to capitalists.

The Public Schools.

An immense amount of responsibility depends on our Board of Education. Several conflicting elements will confront them and it will require their gravest deliberation to decide wisely. Economy will militate against efficiency, at every turn, and sordid views may be the rock on which the Public School system will be greatly injured. Next to competent teachers the great requirement is strict discipline and this can only be maintained by having a capable and responsible head. A Superintendent is as much required as a drill master in a company or a foreman in a factory, and a faithless or incompetent direction of our schools will ruin the efforts of the best of teachers. The Superintendent directs, economizes and augments the work of the teachers, and what is paid in salary to the responsible head is offset by the increased value of the well directed efforts of the teachers. A divided direction in school matters would be equally as fatal as none, for the control of a city's educational interests must have only one responsible head. It is the duty of our Board of Education to study carefully our school system and its merits, compare its efficiency with that of other cities and then act, not from mistaken economy, but prompted by the desire to furnish the most practical education to the masses, at the lowest possible cost to the tax-payers.

Church and State.

Now that President GRANT has thrown down the gauntlet, we may expect earnest discussions of the religious question. The "God in the Constitution" party will make as bitter a fight against GRANT's Message as the most zealous Catholic, and he is apt to be the cause of violent bickerings and strife among his own religious followers. The first intimation of the impending storm we find in the Christian Statesman, the Reformed Presbyterian organ, and an advocate of Republicanism. It is a pointed hit, and we republish it to show what religious Republican organs expect. It reads as follows:

The Thanksgiving Proclamation of the President contained no allusion to Jesus Christ, though when once acceptable within any individual or national, can be offered to God. In this respect, it resembles nearly all similar documents issued by Presidents and Governors. The Proclamation of Governor Pacheco, of California, quoted by our correspondent in another column, is a novelty in literature. It is a good one, and it is to be regrettable to the atheist as President Grant's Proclamation is to the Jew. He who has no God to worship is publicly called to unite with atheists and pagans in a joint celebration of so-called "Thanksgiving," under a Proclamation of General Grant, which is to rise no higher than the sentiments of atheists can be expected to follow. In other words, a Christian State abdicates its own right even to exist, and those who are the units of inhabitants deny its being! This is the conclusion of the logic which begins with the right of a minority to prohibit the expression of sentiments with which they do not agree.

The Health Office.

EDITOR HERALD—Much adverse comment has been made upon the action of the Common Council last Tuesday evening in vacating the Health Office. In a spasmodic effort at economy, they dispensed with an office, which, endowed with the proper power and supported as it should be, would prove one of the most important in the city government. While we do not wish to endorse the action of the Council in what would seem a short sighted policy, still we are compelled in candor to say that, under existing circumstances, as the Health office had been conducted, it just as well should be abolished. In this we do not mean any reflection on Dr. McKee the Health Officer. When the office was first instituted it had a legitimate field of usefulness. Upon his appointment Dr. McKee fully realized this fact and addressed himself industriously to the work of supplying sanitary regulations and enforcing them. For the first few months of his service we believe that the Health Officer performed his duties vigorously and conscientiously; he framed lengthy and comprehensive ordinances, providing for the health of the city, and, when they became law, he went into the highways and by-ways enforcing them. But it chanced that, while in the performance of his functions as a smelling committee, he scented his way to some intolerable nuisances upon the premises of one or two Councilmen. This action was indiscreet. At the next meeting of the Council, after the unfortunate discovery, the Health Officer was officially decapitated. The City Fathers, in their wisdom, decided that the existing health ordinances were too elaborate and oppressive in their character and hence it was better to have none at all. They were gracious enough, however, to pass a vote of thanks to Dr. McKee for his efficiency, and with this consolidation, the Health Officer stepped down and out, on the vote of four Councilmen. But our citizens, having experienced the beneficial results of such a thorough enforcement of the health laws, objected to this summary action of their representatives and demanded in a numerous signed petition that Dr. McKee be reinstated. However reluctantly it may have been done, the Council were compelled to accede to public opinion. When once more invested with the mantle of office, however, the Health Officer profited by his previously dearly bought experience. He was not at all oblivious in looking into nuisances upon the premises of Councilmen, and, indeed, after a succession of wet blankets he ceased to make himself troublesome to anybody. No doubt he thought that the easiest way was the best way. Nor do we censure his actions in this respect. With his powers restricted and his suggestions persistently ignored, it was impossible for him to accomplish any good results. The office, which had been created for a useful purpose, relapsed into a sinecure, and the Health Officer contented himself virtually with a list of births and deaths. In fact, the officious nose, so keen for a bad smell beforehand, became almost oblivious to anything beyond a bottle of cologne or a tube rose. Within two hundred yards of the house in which the Health Officer resided, for two months or more, we could have pointed to a plague spot that smelled rank to Heaven, and was unmolested. Under such an enforced state of inefficiency, the Health Officer was utterly useless to the city, and the fifty dollar a month paid the office was thrown away. While we could afford to pay a hundred and fifty dollars for an office well administered, a simple figurehead is dear at any price. Let our City Council either institute an office that means something, or keep it vacated as it is.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

BY ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC LINE.

[SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.]

PACIFIC COAST.

FOR LOS ANGELES.

CALIFORNIA, Dec. 10.—The following passengers for Los Angeles left on the Telegraph Stage Line to day: Mrs. Anna Gilson, Mrs. Bartlett, J. Hannock, P. Abarta, T. Goway, D. E. Andrews, G. Griffin, A. A. West, Chas. Gooding.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10.—John Bonner and Edward Johnson were arrested yesterday by officers Price and Libbing upon a charge of having assaulted a man named Carbin, on Folsom street near Beale, on Wednesday evening for the purpose of robbing him. Carbin attempted to arrest Bonner but he ran away and in pursuing him Carbin fired 6 shots at him, none taking effect.

Katie Dexter, formerly Katie Jeack will be examined in the police court to-day on charge of perjury committed, it is alleged in saying under oath that she is 18 years of age, to enable her to get a marriage license to marry Joseph Dexter. Her father who caused her arrest says she is only 16 years of age.

The steamer Los Angeles arrived safely yesterday at two o'clock in the afternoon at Victoria in tow by British gunboat Rocket. The Los Angeles had both engines disabled forty-four hours from San Francisco and had been under sail eight days. These are the facts as telegraphed to the Merchant's Exchange. The only loss was of Joseph Walsh overboard in a gale.

The trial of Captain Lindell which has been occupying the attention of the United States Circuit Court was concluded yesterday. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and the prisoner was discharged from custody. Lindell was on trial charged with the wilful wrecking of the Bark Union.

It is now announced that the great four mile race is to come off, notwithstanding all that has been said to the contrary. The Pacific Jockey Club will decide to-morrow the day on which the race is to run. It is generally surmised that Christmas will be the time. Joe Daniels is out in a card, denying the report that Springbok is about to leave for the East, and says he has entirely recovered, and will be on hand. Wild Idyl is incapacitated, will not in any event take part in the race.

Charles Williams, a young man in the employ of the firm of Madison & Barkley, Real Estate Agents, was arrested on the charge of embezzling the funds of the firm.

Another assessment has been levied on the syndicate fund of the Bank of California, payable immediately. It is for ten per cent of the amount subscribed. This makes a total of nearly one third of the amount pledged by the syndicate, of thirty per cent. In addition to this the assessment levied on the capital stock of the bank, amounting to $500,000, will be payable by the coming month. The assessments so far levied on the syndicate fund and the bank's capital stocks aggregates nearly $3,000,000. It is the intention of the managers of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Cornell Jewett and his associates be and are hereby granted all right, powers and privileges necessary to lay and use, as well as operate, Ocean cables on the Pacific coast of the United States from some point or points of Asia, touching at selected points on the Pacific ocean.

Judge George B. Walker is looking for a suitable location for a water power for his paper mill, and, while certain of our citizens think obstacles in his way, San Bernardino is making every effort to get him to locate there. The enterprise of Judge Walker will be an important industry to this section, and we regret to hear that an attempt has been made to thwart him, or else make him pay extra toll to some one.

Yesterday the Coroner received information that the dead body of a man had been washed ashore on the beach beyond the Oceanside House, and a messenger was sent for the body. The deceased was identified as Judas Perin, a confectioner who formerly did business on Post street. The deceased was a married man and his wife who is now living in Saucelito, had commenced an action for divorce. In one of the pockets of his coat was found a polyglot letter addressed to Blanche Perin, his wife. Some of the sentences have words in French, German and English, but they do not convey any sensible ideas. There is but one readily set forth, and that is the closest and is as follows: "You can take morning for a divorce. Judas Perin." The deceased was a native of Germany and well advanced in years.

This morning James O'Malley fell from a scaffold in front of a house on Broadway street nearly opposite the jail to the sidewalk, a distance of 25 feet, and was almost instantly killed. Senator Sharon says he intends going to Washington in January.

SAN DIEGO NEWS.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 10th.—The stranger, whom it was feared had been the victim of the raid on Campo, has turned up all right at Campo.

The steamer Ancon with a large number of passengers, arrived last evening eight hours ahead of her scheduled time, having had unusually fine weather coming down.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

CHICO, Dec. 9th.—Three Chinamen while attempting to steal pork from Fred Ackerman's slaughter house this evening, were fired upon by Sheriff Morgan and Ackerman, who were watching for them. Two of them were seriously wounded.

TRUST.

Searching for strawberries ready to eat; finding them crimson and large and sweet; What do you think I found at my feet Deep in the green hill-side?

Four brown sparrows, the cunning things, feathered on back, and breast, and wings, Prudish with the dignity plumage brings, opening their mouths wide.

Stooping low to seize a pizza, Watching their motions and curious eyes; Dropping my berries in glad surprise, A plaintive sound I heard.

And looking up at the mournful call, I spied on a branch near the old stone-wall, Trembling and twittering, ready to fall, Two poor little mother bird.

With grief and terror her heart was wrong, And with to follow thought she clung, She left the tree of her home, and hung On a still more slender branch.

Ah, brother! I said, if only known My heart was tender and warm and true, But the thought I loved her bidding too, Never entered her small brown head.

And so through this world of ours we go, Bearing our burdens of needless woe, Many a heart beating heavy and slow Under his load of care.

But O, if only, only knew That God was tender, warm in true, And he loved us in much and the much, our hearts would be lighter than air,

Bananas.

Rev. H. H. Messenger showed us yesterday a banana grown by Mr. James Huntington of Orange. It was one of a bunch containing fifty-five bananas, and weighed four and one-half ounces. An imported banana which Mr. Messenger brought for comparison only weighed three and one-half ounces. The bulb from which the banana grew was imported from the Sandwich Islands and sold to Mr. Huntington twenty-two months ago. It is of the Chinese dwarf variety. In flavor as well as in size we consider the domestic fruit superior to the imported. This will settle forever the mooted question whether bananas will grow in Southern California. One reason of the superiority of the domestic fruit is perhaps found in the fact that it was allowed to ripen in the sun, while the other was picked green and shipped. Mr. Messenger is enthusiastic in his belief that bananas will flourish here, and he bases his opinion upon a long and thorough experience in the culture of the fruit. He thinks that when planted in groves the stalks will protect each other from any possibility of danger from frost or other damaging elements. We understand that it took twelve years to acclimate the banana in Florida so that they would bear fruit, but here they have come to maturity in the first season after planting. Mr. Messenger has a plan to plant the twenty-ninth of last April and they are now from six to eight feet high and look as though they are ready to bear. This is even a more rapid growth than the Chinese dwarf.

Calif. Co. vs. Sonoma et al.—Report of referee filed and presented in open court. No objection being made by the defendants, decree ordered to enter as prayed for. Adjourned to the 10th day of January, at 9 A.M.

CHOICE REAL ESTATE,

Situated in the centre of the city, viz:

Ninety-seven Lots

FRONTING ON TEMPLE STREET,

On the East side of Pearl, and South of Canal and Reserve Streets. About four minutes' walk from Temple Block.

The Surveyor is now at work surveying these lots. They are not to be laid out in the stereotyped style, in square blocks—in order to get the greatest number of lots, with no regard to the grades of the streets—but

This Tract is Laid out in Park Form.

Each street is made to conform to the topography of the land, thus preserving the natural formation, and reducing the cost of grading to the minimum.

PARK VIEW TRACT

Commands a view of my Park, which will, in a short time, be the

Most Beautiful Spot in the Country.

Already several thousand trees have been planted, and walks and drives made, and fountains constructed, at a great expense.

WATER

Is Already on the Tract.

As soon as the map and survey are completed, the lots will be offered at private sale, on the installment plan, as follows, viz:

On lots worth from $300 to $400, $20 per month; and on all lots worth more than $400, $25 per month—together with interest at one cent per month on the unpaid balance.

Parties desiring to pay in full for their lots before the installments become due have that privilege.

I will hold these terms open till December 20th.

Parties who make one payment on a lot can take possession by paying a sum of house, and add the great expense of paying rent, and in a short time, by the saying of this one item of expense, can pay for their lot. Meantime,

The Property is Increasing in Value
